July 27, 29 and Aug. 1 the Dates-Yachtsmen at New London Feel Anxiety for Phair Boats on Account of the Storm -To Copy Aspirant Type—Special Cups

NEW LONDON, July 19.- The storm that raged all last night passed off this morning and the wind shifted to the northwest. It was pretty brisk, too, and it seemed a pity that such a good racing breeze should go to waste, but all hands engaged in the New York Yacht club cruise wanted a rest after the two days of hard work. The accidents caused by the storm were not serious, but the yachtsmen had several hours of anxiety. There would not have been much danger if the harbor had not been so crowded, but with a fleet of more than 200 vessels packed in there was a possibility of some dragging their anchors and fouling other boats.

Mr. Iselin was anxious for the safety of the Reliance, but she was not endangered at any time. The old schooner yacht, Columbia, the defender of the cup against the Livonia in 1871, dragged her anchor and lifted up against Mitchell's dock. She ground against the woodwork for a long time, but was finally got out into deep water again, and, except for some scratches on her paint, was uninjured. The sloop Senta, owned by A. Howard Hinkle, went ashore. She was hauled off by a wrecking tug and is not hurt seriously. Isaac Stern's steam yacht Virginia was anchored near the dock off the Pequot House. she dragged, and it was necessary to get up steam and get away to save her from going ashore. Every yacht in the fleet had two anchors out and plenty of cable. The Delaware, in swinging, fouled the cutter Isolde and two small boats, but did not do any serious

Heavy banks of clouds have been hanging over the harbor to-day and several times rain threatened, but as a whole the day was a fair one and thousands of visitors went down to see the yachts. The fleet is the largest that has ever been seen in New London harbor, and boats have been coming in all day.

A meeting of the committee on cup challenge was held on ex-Commodore J. Pierpont Morgan's steam yacht Corsair this after-The members of this committee are: Commodore Bourne, ex-Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard, ex-Commodore, J. Pierpont Morgan, ex-Commodore E. M. Brown, ex-Commodore E. D. Morgan, W. B. Duncan, Jr., J. Malcoim Forbes, ex-Commodore S. Nichol-on Kane and August Belmont.

The most important business done was arranging the dates for the trial races which are to be sailed to select the defender for the America's Cup. These races, according to the original schedule, were to have been sailed off Newport beginning on July 30. Five races were to have been sailed, and the yachts were to race every other day. The three days preceding the trial races were to have been devoted to racing for all other classes.

The owners of the 90-footers thought it best to get the trials over as soon as possible, in order that the yacht selected might have as much time as possible to prepare for the international races. It was agreed that there should be three trial races sailed, and the dates for these are: Monday, July 27; Wednesday, July 29, and Saturday, Aug. 1. On Tuesday, July 28, and Thursday, July 30, there will be races for all classes and the 90-footers will start in these races.

This evening Commodore Bourne entertained the members of the Reliance syndicate, the owners of the 90-footers, and the members of the regatta committee at dinner on board the Delaware. Among those who were at the dinner were: James J. Hill, Vice-Commodore Henry Walters, W. B. Leeds, P. A. B. Widener, J. Pierpont Morgan, Leeds, P. A. B. Widener, J. Pierpont Morgan, S. Nicholson Kane, Newburv D. Lawton, Edward H. Wales, August Belmont, C. Oliver Iselin, W. B. Duncan, Jr., E. D. Morgan and the guests who are sailing with the commodore on the Delaware.

The regatta committee has announced the disposition of the special cups that have been offered by the flag officers, which are in addition to the regular prizes for which the yachts race each day. Vice-Commodore Henry Walters has given a cup to the winner of the first day's run, from Glen Cove to Morris Cove. All yachts race in one class, of the first day's run, from then Cove to Morris Cove. All yachts race in one class, with full allowance for rig, according to the rules. Rear Commodore Vanderbit gave a cup for the second day's run, which was from Morris Cove to New London for all boats sailing in one class and under the same conditions as the Walters cup.

For to-morrow's run to Newport Rear Commodore Vanderbilt has offered two cups.

For to-morrow's run to Newport Rear Commodore Vanderbilt has offered two cups. One is for schooners, all in one class, and the other for sloops, cutters and yawls, all in one class. On Tuesday when the yachts race to Vineyard Haven there will be a special cup offered by Vice-Commodore Walters for yachts, all racing in one class, with allowances, and on Wednesday when the yachts race back to Newport two more cups will be offered by Vice-Commodore Walters, one for sloops and one for schooners. Commodore Bourne has offered two cups, one for the schooner winning the most squadron runs, all in one class.

Vice-Commodore Walters will also give a cup to the 90-footer which wins the most runs. For this cup the Reliance and Constitution have each won a leg. For the commodore's cups the Elmina, owned by F. F. Brewster, won the first days race for schooners and the Latona, chartered to H. and L. Deming, won the second day's run in the schooner classes. In the contest for the sloop cup, the Aspirant, owned by W. and A. Hanan, won the first day's run, and the Queen Mab, owned by Clifford Brokaw, won the second day's run.

When the yachts race all in one class when the yachts race all in one class schoolers are rated at 85 per cent. of their actual measurement, yawls at 93 per cent, and sloops and cutters at their full rating in figuring time allowance. In the race on Friday for Vice-Commodore Walters's cup the Elmina won, and in the race vesterday for the Rear Commodore Vanderbilt cup the Latona woll.

the Elmina won, and in the race vesterday for the Rear Commodore Vanderbitt cupthe Latona won.

The Weetamoe did not win Friday's race in the H class of sloops. The table showed that she made the shortest time over the course, but she started on the wrong signal and went over the line too soon. This, of course, put her out of the contest and the Neola is the winner. The Neola has now won each race run for the class.

The 43-footer Aspirant has made such a good record and has shown herself to be of such a wholesome type that there is much talk of a class being made for these boats for next season's racing. Five or six yachtamen have almost decided to have boats built from the same design as the Aspirant's and race all the boats in on class. The Aspirant was designed by William Gardner and built by Woods at City Island.

To-morrow morning the fleet will get under way at 8:30 o'clock for Newport. The racing fleet will be started from a line at Sarah's Ledge buoy at 9:30 o'clock and race to Brenton's Reef lightship, forty miles away.

Red Fox, 2:10, the roan owned by Charles D. Strang, came in for two or three good wins, getting two from L. R. Acker's chestnut mare after hot finishes at the mile pole. Cadet, driven by "Father Bill" Daly, came up fresh from Gravesend and won a lively tilt from Red Fox. Brandywine swung in with Red Fox and Cadet when they started again, but "Father Bill" pulled up, Brandywine winning from Red Fox.

Dr. E. R. Parker's team, Berkshire Courier, 2:10, and Happy Wilkes, 2:13, were out with a challenge but could find none to take up the gauntlet, so they were brushed several times alone and showed great stepping abilities. Others who won brushes were John Irving's Chance, Charles Moncrief's Isaac, W. D. Wynne's Robinette, 2:13½, G. B. Conklin's Norval Red and Andrew Cone's Alice Drake.

BROOKLYNS LOSE TEN-INNING GAME IN ST. LOUIS.

O'Nelli Battery Too Much for the Visitors -Chicago Cubs Win From the Champion Pittsburgs and the Cincinnati Reds Drub the Lowly Quakers Twice.

St. Louis, July 19 .- Brooklyn dropped today's game to St. Louis, 5 to 4. It went into an extra inning. Jones twirled a masterly game for the visitors, but the O'Neill battery for the Cardinals was too much for them. At the close of the seventh inning the score stood 4 to 2 in favor of the Brooklyns. the last half of the eighth the Cardinals tied the score on a free pass, a double, a single and an error. In the last half of the tenth Jones fanned out two men, but Smoot's dou-ble and Barclay's single brought in the win-starts. Rigodon is at Saratoga, where in his been going nicely. If it is decided to send him to the barrier he will be shipped to Brighton not later than Wednesday. He has developed gradually and his last race at Brighton, which was a victory, made a host of friends for him. J. B. Haggin is sure to start Charles Ellwood, the Prestonpans colt who ran second to Shorthose in the Tidal Stakes. Ell wood has been working well at Sheepshead Bay with the Derby in view and if he starts he will be backed.

August Belmont's Mizzen is eligible for the Derby, but nobody knows whether he will start. The Hastings colt has tender feet and has not been to the races for some time. Perry Belmont's River Pirate, one of the puzzles of the turf, is sure to sport silk. He ran third in the Brighton Handicap with good weight up and has been running with improved form during the last two months P. J. Dwyer's rather disappointing Merry Acrobat is another probable starter. This colt was pronounced a world beater during the winter, because at the wind-up of his two-year-old career he had shown ability to go a route with weight up. But in spite of careful handling the son of Handspring has not come up to expectations by any means. J. Grant Lyman's Tantalus Cup, by Locohatchee—Charma, is receiving a special "prep" for the Derby and so is Green B. Morris's Slave. Charley Dwyer and Sim Deimel, the owners of Africander, will have a starter in the Derby after all. They purchased Rightful at the Schorr sale on Saturday and the colt will carry the well-known colors, possibly to victory.

The success of Africander, by the way, has enabled Dwyer & Deimel to build up a pretty shifty stable. They have Rostand, who won Saturday, Setauket, Rightful, Eva Russell and others.

The Brighton Oaks for three-year-old fillies at a mile and 70 yards is on the card for Thursday. W. C. Whitney's Judith Campbell will not start, but Mrs. L. Curtis's Eugenia Burch will, which means that it will take a high class filly to beat her. The Keenes' Stolen Moments and J. B. Hrooklyn... 1 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 Two base hits—M. The Sea Gull Stakes, also for three-year-old fillies, will be run this afternoon. Tomorrow the Nautilus Selling Stakes for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a furlong is the feature. In addition to the match race on Wednesday, the Montauk Stakes for two-year-olds at six furlongs will be decided with S. S. Brown's flyer. Conjurer, by Sir Dixon—Conjecture, the star of the lot. On Monday the Metropolitan Jockey Club will begin a week's meeting at Jamaica, which will end the local season until after the big meeting at Saratoga. The Jamaica people have arranged an excellent programme including the Youthful Stakes for two-year-olds and the Elmdale Handicap for all ages on the opening day: the Greenfield Stakes for two-year-olds on Tuesday, the Dunton Stakes for three-year-olds on Wednesday, the Clarendon Handicap for all ages on Thursday, the Richmond Stakes for three-year-olds and upward on Friday, and on Saturday the Ridgewood Handicap for two-year-olds and the Forest Handicap for two-year-olds and the Forest Handicap for two-year-olds. The entire lawn at Jamaica has been sodded so that there will be no dust clouds such as made things unpleasant for patrons at the spring meeting.

Preparations are already under way for the Saratoga meeting, which opens two weeks from to-day. The $12,000 Saratoga Handicap at a mile and a quarter will probably attract one of the most notable fields of the year. In addition to both McChesney and Waterboy it is probable that Hermis, Gunfire, Goldsmith, Irish Lad, Africander, Advance Guard, City Bank, Golden Maxim, Savable, Col. Bill, Lux Casta, Blues and River Pirate will go to the post. CINCINNATI, 9: PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 5-PIRST CINCINNATI. July 19.—By hard hitting the Cincinnatis twice defeated the Philadelphias to-day. Steinfeldt made Jour hits in the first game, including a double and a home run, the latter being one of the hardest hits of the season. Fraser did well until the fifth inning of the second game, when five hits were bunched by the Reds. Umpire Johnstone benched Dooin early in the first game for kicking. Donin had a finger smashed by a pitched ball in the second game and retired. By agreement but seven innings were played in the last game.

This was the chestnut Harry H., driven by Harry Heuman, and until he lost his balance it was a pretty contest. In his third start Damiana beat a good field. The bay gelding Jolly was a starter, with the chestnut mare Perchance and the brown pacer 19sego. Damiana made a break in getting away, and before he got well settled in his stride he was half a dozen lengths in the rear. Then he trotted fast, and overhauling one after the other, he finally won the brush in almost the last stride.

Harry Heuman and his pacer Harry H. were prominent winners, the brown trotter Paruell, driven by L. G. Held, finishing behind the chestnut pacer after a losing break. Parnell was in good form, for later he finished in front of the fast mare Marie Warren, criven by Charles Salamen. This was the only brush Marie Warren lost, although she was handicapped by two persons being in the wagon she drew.

The black pacer Tommy Brown was another good winner. On the upper stretch Tommy Brown won from the pacer Cassius, driven by C. E. Decker, and later over the lower stretch he beat the bay gelding Custer, with a chestnut gelding. Teddy in third place. As a close to his winning programme Tommy Brown finished in front of the bay mare Constance. James Kennedy, accompanied by his daughter, behind the bay pacer N. T. B., 2:21%, won a number of brushes. Perhaps the best was when he finished in front of the pacer Warbler. L. A. NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. Lawson and McFarland on an Un Strike at Belleville.

Five thousand cycle racing enthusiasts went to the Hillside oval at Belleville, N. J. yesterday expecting to see another bitter struggle between Champion Frank Kramer and his new rival for the title, Iver Lawson They saw some good professional and amateur contests, but the rivals did not meet in any race. According to an announce ment the reason for this was that Lawson joined with Floyd McFarland in making "strike" for appearance money, and it was a strike that failed. The managers declared that they had refused to accede to the de-mand and that McFarland and Kramer had thereupon refused to ride. The crowd howled wildly at this announcement, and evidently ided with the management. As the two riders had not signed entry blanks nothing can be done toward having them disciplined by the N. C. A., for they broke no contract. There was a spill in the two-mile pro fessional handicap, which brought down all except five. Fourteen started in the race. Only the four prize winners finished. Aside Only the four prize winners finished. Aside from the upset, this was a rousing handican runin fast time for the three-lap dirt track. After the spill, in which Fenn was one of those who went down and Bedell was severely bruised, Root and Schreiber made it interesting for Kramer going up the stretch, but Kramer won the in the last five yards, catching Root and beating him out at the tape by a foot.

Valley Stream was the mecca for hundreds Valley Stream was the mecca for hundreds of cyclists of both sexes yesterday to see the attempt of W. B. Ferguson of the Kings County Wheelmen to lower the record made last Sunday by Harry J. Hall for a 100-mile ride on a cycle behind motor pace, that record being 6 hours 35 minutes. The route taken by Ferguson was over the triangle from Valley Stream to Springfield, thence back to Belmore, and thence back to the starting point. Ferguson broke Hall's record by 1 hour and 10 minutes, establishing a new record of 5 hours and 26 minutes for the journey.

TWELVE PROFESSIONALS TO BE INVITED TO COMPETE.

Will Anderson, the Open Champion, to Aid in Selecting the Names-U, S. G. A. Committee for Oxford and Cambridge Matches-Western Amateur Schedule.

a representative entry of the local amateurs will be at the Ekwanok Country Club, but a week later, on July 30, 31 and Aug. 1, the invitation tournament at the Apamawis Club will bring the players back again to the M G. A. links, and thereafter there will be something of importance on for decision, includ-ing the Oxford and Cambridge matches and the women's championship, at intervals of a few days until Thanksgiving week. Besides the programme for the amateurs, the Apawamis Club will hold a thirty-six-hole medal play contest on Aug. 1, in which twelve professionals will be invited to start. There will be three prizes of $200, $100 and $50, respectively, an amateur winning to receive plate of equal value.

The problem now before the Apawamis committee is what professionals to invite. The placed men in the open championship would be invited without scratchings, but it is held to be asking too much of the Westerners and others from a distance to come on for the one day of play. It is probable, on this account, that the invitations will be extended only to those who can readfly reach the links, and, in a tentative way, it has been suggested to have in the field, if possible, Will Anderson, Apawamis; Alexander Smith, Nassau; Stewart Gardner, Garden City; David Brown, Wollaston; Alexander Campbell, Brookline; Donald Ross, Oakley; Bermard Nicholls, Hollywood; Will Norton, Deal; Isaac Mackie, Fox Hills; John Hobens, Yountakah; George Low, Baltustrol, and John Harland, Brooklawn. This dozen would not include David Hunter, Robert Dow, Patrick, Tucker, and others at M. G. A. clubs, who may feel slighted at not being asked, but unless the list is extended or else the invitations confined to professionals in the New York district, it will be impossible to bring everybody in.

No definite announcement of the list will be made until Will Anderson returns from Milwaukee, for it may be that he has arranged for the attendance of Auchterlonie, Will Smith, Harry Turple, Alec Ross, Horace Rawlins, Gil Nicholls or some others in the first flight of the experts. At all events, Apawamis competition should produce good President Windeler of the U. S. G. A. has appointed as a special committee to have charge of the matches of the team from the Oxford and Cambridge Goifing Society Messrs Heebner, Larking and Ballou of the U. S. G. A. Executive Committee.

As H. Chandler Egan will have to defend the title in the Western Golf Association amateur championship, to be played at the Euclid Country Club. Cleveland, on Aug. 4 to 8, it is doubtful if he will be able to play on the intercollegiate team in the match against the Oxford and Cambridge visitors, scheduled for Myopia, on Aug. 10. The Western championship will be at match play throughout, Aug. 4 being given up to preliminary play so as to have sixty-four for the first eighteen-hole round on Aug. 5. The final, on Aug. 8, will be at thirty-six holes. An extra event will be the "special flight" cup, which will begin with an eighteen-hole medal play qualifying round on Aug. 8, the afternoon.

APAWAMIS GOLF TOURNAMENT WRECKS AND NEARLY A DROWNING Riverside Yacht Club's Regatta One of the Most Eventful in Its History. Two of the competing yachts wrecked, one of them almost a total derelict, and the narrow escape of a sailor from drowning, was the list of casualties that assisted in making the fifteenth annual regatta of the Riverside Yacht Club on Saturday an eventful one in the history of that organization. The event was sailed in half a gale, accompanied by a disagreeable downpour of rain. Despite these unfavorable conditions twenty-five of the best-known racing yachts were at the starting line when the regatta committee gave the starting signals from the steamer Union. The wind was sweeping across the Sound from the southeast at the rate of fully twenty miles and increased to half a gale before the contestants completed the course. The larger yachts were sent around a triangle of eighteen nautical miles, the raceabouts voyaged a distance of fourteen and a half nautical miles, and the smaller craft and a nair nautical mies, and the single crait raversed nine nautical miles, the start and finish for all classes being to the eastward of the gas buoy off Little Captain's Island. The direction of the wind made the race a beat to the first mark, a reach to the second and a min here.

the first mark, a reach to the second and a run home.

During the reach to the second mark the starboard spreader on the Ibis swung backward and the shroud parted with a loud snap. The mast wavered for an instant and then crashed over to leeward as its heel jumped from the step. The heel of the spar was forced through the planking and tore a hole nearly two feet long, through which the water poured as every wave struck the disabled craft. She was picked up by the regatta committee's steamer and towed back to Riverside. In making the hawser fast to her a sailor from the tug was washed overboard and was rescued with difficulty. He was exhausted when pulled on board. The Seawanhaka knockabout Lucille carried away her rudder on the run for the home mark, but managed to reach port under her jib.

ROWING.

Beat Clubs to Move Again-Titus Has a Novelty in Hollow Sculls.

Within a few days "Scullers' Row" will be subjected to another change and those half a dozen clubs which have done considerable migratory work in the past few years will have to undergo another overbauling. Com-missioner Eustis visited the "Row" yesterday, and he notified the club captains that the work of filling in the bulkhead of Macomb's Dam Park would begin this week. Two or three of the houses will be jacked up and a couple will remain on their present spiles and the space around them will be filled up to the required level. One club-the Nassau will have to move out altogether, because the three houses rest on rafts and will be unmanageable when the filling begins. It was learned at the Nassau that the houses will be towed to-day or to-morrow directly across the river and a site located at the foot of 156th street. As soon as the frontage has been filled in, the Nassaus will begin the erection of a shingle house on their present site and dispose of the old boathouses to the

A mass meeting of Brooklyn Royal Arcanum bowlers was held last Saturday night at the Royal Arcanum Club in Schermerhorn street to straighten out the tangle the Bowling League has got into in its efforts to secure alleys for the annual tournament. Twenty-one councils were represented. Richard Brown of Commonwealth Council presided. There were some lively tilts between the friends of Charles H. Ebbets, who is building the Superba alleys, and the chairman of the committee which had selected the Eldorado alleys. A resolution was finally adopted requesting President George Kaiser to call a special meeting of the league for the purpose of passing upon the legality of the appointment of the meeting. It was the almost unanimous opinion of the delegates after the meeting that the committee's selection of the Eldorado alleys would be Indorsed. The board of managers of the Brooklyn Royal Arcanum Minor League held a special meeting on Saturday night and selected Ebbets's alleys for the annual tournament. It is understood that Ebbets gives the league for the annual tournament. Twenty-one the use of four alleys nightly and contributes $200 to the prize fund. Herman Ehler, who is building the Universal alleys in Washington street, made a smilar offer, but the committee decided by a vote of 3 to 2 in favor of Ebbets.

The nine clubs competing for the championship of the New York Cricket Association are this year enjoying a desperate struggle are this year enjoying a desperate struggle for the pennant. Columbia Oval maintains the lead, but the Williamsbridge team will require to put forth an extra effort in its next two games, when it will encounter Branch Brook and Brooklyn on successive Saturdays. In the contest for the batting prize 4. Hoskings of Columbia has lost the lead to J. Flannery of Brooklyn, who has an average of 44.66 for five innings. A Hoskings is second with 33, and D. Birkett third with 29.50. Planner, P. Change. Manhattan.
